Listening Script and Answer Key

(Teacher reads or plays the audio.)

Hello, my name is Emma. I'd like to talk about my life, my plans, and my grandparents' past.

Next month, I am going to take an important exam, so I am studying very hard these days. I think I will study medicine at university because I want to help people. On Monday afternoon, I am meeting my friends at a café to study together.

In the past, my grandfather lived in a small town. He used to walk to school every day and didn't use to have a mobile phone or a computer. Children used to play outside, and families spent more time together in the evenings.

My grandfather also told me a story about his youth. One day, while he was walking home, he heard a strange noise. First, he stopped and looked around. Then, he saw an injured bird on the road. Finally, he helped the bird and took it home. He says that moment changed his life and taught him to be kind.
